
Financial Sector Knowledge Sharing Project

The USAID Financial Sector Knowledge Sharing project tested innovative approaches to financial sector development and facilitated the collection, analysis, and dissemination of best practices and lessons learned. Through these activities, the project strived to increase access to financial services and developed well-functioning markets worldwide. Key resources can be found below.

Key Resources

FS Series Primers, diagnostic checklists, and model scopes of work

1. Enabling Sub-Sovereign Bond Issuances
2. Health Sector Financing in Developing Countries
3. Supporting the Establishment of Credit Bureaus
4. Enabling SME Access to Finance
5. Value Chain Finance
6. Developing Corporate Bond Markets in Developing Countries
7. Enhancing the Leasing Enabling Environment
8. Rural and Agricultural Finance for Food Security
9. Enabling Mobile Money Interventions
10. Establishing Modern Secured Financing Systems in Developing Economies
11. Innovations in Financial Services Delivery – Branchless Banking
12. Developing Government Bond Markets

Other Deliverables and White Papers

- Tool to Conduct Capital Markets Assessments in Developing Countries
- Guidelines for a Rapid Financial Crisis Assessment
- Establishing an Enabling Environment for Financial Sector Development
- Expanding Agricultural Lending Toolkit
- Strengthening Agricultural Value Chain Lending Training Manual

Final Report

- FS Share Final Report